Following the great success of the two initial Mare MED Conferences last year - in Athens and Tel Aviv, we are holding the next conference in Athens - May 11th-13th, to continue the business momentum and enhance the activities of the B2B Greek- Israeli network that has been created. The first two conferences proved that there is a vibrant bilateral ecosystem of business and a real need for a platform to enable B2B meetings (over 200), discussions and networking, for business leaders from both countries to realize the unlimited potential of the economic relationship between Greece and Israel - as focal points of the Eastern Mediterranean and as gateways to Europe, the Middle East and India (the IMEC vision).
