

The International Conference of the Association of Electrical, Electronics, and Energy Engineers

November 11–15, 2025 | Herods and Dan Hotels, Eilat

Return to Sponsorship

About the Conference:

The "Electricity & Energy 2025" Conference will take place from Tuesday to Saturday, November 11–15, 2025, at the Herods and Dan Hotels in Eilat. This is the largest professional and social event in the fields of electricity, energy, and air conditioning in Israel, and this year marks its 24th edition.

The conference is expected to host 2,500 engineers and industry professionals, including senior figures and decision-makers from over 500 companies, factories, academic institutions, government ministries, and private offices from Israel and abroad.

The rich and diverse program will include 40 plenary and parallel sessions, featuring over 150 professional lectures on current topics in electrical engineering, energy, and air conditioning.

As tradition holds, the conference will also feature one of Israel's largest and most important professional exhibitions, where over 80 leading companies from Israel and around the world will showcase advanced equipment, new products, innovations, and cutting-edge technologies.
